

NATIONAL DISASTER RESILIENCE COMPETITION APPLICATION PUBLIC COMMENT PERIOD AND HEARINGS

The New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection is accepting public comment on the State's proposed plan to submit an application for approximately $1 billion in federal funding through the CDBG-NDRC, the National Disaster Resilience Competition. This U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD)-created competition seeks to build resilient communities in areas struck by natural disasters in recent years. New Jersey proposed to use these funds to make riverine and estuarine communities more resilient. For more information, visit www.nj.gov/dep/floodhazard.
