Recreation of HIGHLANDS BEACH Stacey Pritchard

Highlands Borough Arts Council and the Historical Society of Highlands invite you to experience first-hand why Highlands, the Gateway to the Jersey Shore, has been a travel destination for over a century !

Pick up your “passport” at et al Fine Foods, order a picnic lunch and get your first clue to 10 significant Highlands destinations. Enjoy the views as you leisurely make your way through town. At the final destination, reflect on local artist Stacey Pritchard’s oil recreations of historic Highlands and thumb through local historian Walt Guenther’s book.

Course: approximately 2-3 hours to complete - requires a car

Admission: $50.00 per team (up to 6). Individuals $10 (will be combined to form teams of 4-6). Children under 12 are free when accompanied by an adult. Price does not include lunch.

Pre-Register: Space is LIMITED. PRE-REGISTER on the HBAC Facebook page or by contacting Maureen Welch at welch.maureen@gmail.com. Indicate your name, contact info, team name and number of participants.
