FREEHOLD, NJ – Monmouth County Clerk Christine Hanlon reminds registered Monmouth County voters that sample ballots for the upcoming Nov. 3 General Election are now available for viewing on the County Clerk's new elections website, MonmouthCountyVotes.com.

The names of all candidates currently running for elected office in the New Jersey Assembly, County Freeholder Board, County Clerk, Mayor, Town Council or Committee and local school boards are all listed on sample ballots by voting district.

“The sample ballots are posted online in advance of the traditional mailing of the ballots,” said Hanlon. “The MonmouthCountyVotes website is designed to help voters familiarize themselves with their local candidates in all 53 Monmouth County municipalities before going to the polls on General Election Day.”

From the MonmouthCountyVotes.com website, scroll over the word “Elections” on the top menu bar and then click on “Sample Ballots” from the drop down menu. When the new webpage appears, click on name of the town in which you are seeking the sample ballot.

Sample ballots will also be mailed to voters on Wednesday, Oct. 28.
