

DEP's New, Interactive Public Access Map

Earlier today, Commissioner Martin announced DEP's new, interactive Public Access Map. This week's episode of the Discover DEP podcast, which discusses the new map, is now live on the DEP website. This new map allows visitors to locate 2,900 public access points along the Atlantic coast and back bays in Monmouth, Ocean, Atlantic, and Cape May counties and to find out detailed information about the amenities available at each access point.
